Invite you to take part in their 2019 Classic Car Run

Wings & Big Wheel Rally

A Charity Fun Run to Museum of Power

Sunday 28th April 2019 - Supporting National Drive It Day

Starting from Stow Maries Great War Aerodrome, CM3 6RJ, refreshments will be available to buy before setting out on an 55-mile journey through the Essex countryside. The destination will be Museum of Power, Hatfield Road, Langford, CM9 6QA. Set in seven acres, the main exhibits are housed in the 1920s Steam Pumping Station, the former generator hall and boiler house. Pride of place is given to the magnificent Lilleshall triple-expansion steam engine which was returned to steam for the first time in 50 years in April 2011. The Museum includes numerous power-related exhibits that will interest young and the not so young, Free access to grounds, the climax will be a static display in the centre of the grounds where awards & raffle prizes will be distributed.

Entry Cost includes: Tulip Rally Route Map & Rally Plate to put on the Front of your Car
Car Clubs welcome. Please note, this a charity fun run & Not a Motor Race!
